

ARE YOU READY FOR THE NEW LEAD BASED PAINT RULES? IF YOU'RE NOT, IT COULD COST YOU

It is vitally important that if you are disturbing lead based paint, that you have your Renovation, Repair, and Painting Certificate (RRP)

A Certification Session is being held in Galveston
August 21st, 2010 at Ashton Villa, 2328 Broadway

New EPA laws require all contractors to attend training sessions in order to work with lead based paint.

Contractors face sizable fines if they do not have their Renovation, Repair, and Painting Certification (RRP).

The Galveston Historical Foundation and the City of Galveston are co-sponsoring one of these classes on

August 21, 2010 from 8am-5pm

NOTICE: If you are completing the work on your own property, you do not need to be certified.

The Galveston Historical Foundation, through a Partners in the Field grant from the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and the City of Galveston, with funding from the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, are co-sponsoring this RRP Certification course on August 21, 2010. Class is being taught by Glenn Ray of RTC of Louisiana, LLC. www.rtcpro.com/ Training provided through the National Center for Healthy Homes

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) mandates that all home improvement contractors, maintenance workers in multi-family housing, painters, and other specialty trades that disturb a minimum 6 sq/ft area of lead based paint have their RRP Certificate to work on residential, public or commercial buildings where children under the age six are present on a regular basis, and all rental housing by October 1, 2010.

COST: $237 per person, includes lunch and refreshments
