

All classes begin at 9 a.m., 3 of 5 are held at 908 23rd Street, Galveston
Note: October 29th and November 12th classes are at different sites

SEPTEMBER 24 – ENVIRONMENTALLY SOUND, AESTHETICALLY PLEASING LANDSCAPE DESIGN

Landscape designer, Mark Fox will lead the class through the subject of gardening techniques that are sensitive to the environment and pleasing to the senses. Join us to learn some tips and tricks on making beautiful, eco-friendly Galveston gardens.

OCTOBER 1 – LOOKING FOR THE PERFECT HOUSE: SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS WHEN BUYING AND OWNING A HISTORIC BUILDING

There are a number of unique things to consider when buying and owning a historic building. GHF assembled a panel of a local realtor, mortgage banker, and insurance agent to speak about the differences of buying/owning a historic building as opposed to a newer structure.

OCTOBER 29 – RESPECTING THE PAST: HOW TO PROPERLY CARE FOR CEMETERY HEADSTONES AND STATUES

Just in time for Halloween, GHF's Matt Farragher will demonstrate how to properly clean headstones and monuments without damaging them.
NOTE: The class will take place at the east entrance of the Broadway Cemetery (4100 Broadway) and include a short tour of the historic complex.

NOVEMBER 5 – GETTING CREATIVE WITH ARCHITECTURAL SALVAGE

Looking for fun and creative ways to use architectural salvage? Join GHF's Joe Janota and Ed Drozdik as they demonstrate various projects one can complete with recycled building elements. With the class being held at the Salvage Warehouse you won't have to go far for inspiration or materials.

NOVEMBER 12– INTERNAL LUSTER: HOW TO PROPERLY CLEAN AND TREAT YOUR HISTORIC WOODWORK

Join us inside the beautiful Bishop's Palace as Jhonny Langer explains the recipe for solutions you can use to properly clean and maintain historic woodwork. The different types of wood used will be explained and participants will be given the chance to put what they learn to practice.
NOTE: Class will take place at Bishop's Palace (1402 Broadway)

Galveston Historical Foundation invites you to participate in our historic preservation Demonstration Class Series.

The cost for all five sessions is $45 for GHF members and $55 for non-members. Individual sessions are $10 each for members and $12 for non-members.
